

Economic Outlook Seminar – online platform lobby area:

Upon entry to the main lobby area, attendees can navigate to all areas:

- Collapsible navigation to view all sessions, see other attendees, interact and network via the social lounge, chat functions and more.
- Access to the main conference keynote sessions via the embedded Zoom platform live stream.
- Access individual city outlook sessions.

The screenshot displays the X-CD Virtual Conference lobby interface. On the left is a dark blue sidebar with a collapsible navigation menu. The menu includes sections for 'Conference' (Lobby, Sessions, Participants, Social Lounge, Chat, Social Feed, Exhibitor Directory), 'Information' (View ePosters, Keynote Speakers, 5k Fun Run, Evaluation), 'Support' (Live Support Chat), and 'Administration' (Publish Notification, Statistics). The main content area is titled 'X-CD Virtual Conference' and features a grid of content. At the top left, there's a profile for Christina Voyles with an 'Update Profile' button. Below it are several tweet-like posts from users like Baptiste.J, MN Anesthesiologists, and Eve Marquis. To the right, there's a large video player showing a live stream of a person speaking. Further right, there are logos for X-CD Technologies, BAYER, and SANOFI. At the bottom right, there's a section for 'Recent Release' with video thumbnails and a 'Pat Baskerville' post about radiographs.

Economic Outlook Seminar – online platform participant page:

- Navigation menu collapses for easier visibility.
- Attendees can see and search for all other attendees, speakers and sponsors via filters. Filters refine the participant search based on city, company and other affiliations.
- Conference badges can be clicked to launch a pop-up with more information and the opportunity to text chat.

The screenshot displays the 'X-CD Virtual Conference' interface. On the left, a navigation menu is visible, which can be collapsed. The main area shows a search bar and a list of filters for refining results. The search results are displayed in a grid of cards, each representing a participant. A pop-up window is shown, providing a detailed profile for a selected participant.

Economic Outlook Seminar – online platform social lounge:

Participants may enter any Social Lounge by clicking “Join Room” and network via the embedded zoom video meeting platform. Attendees can see if a room is full before entering, or plan to meet each other in specific social lounges at a set time.

The screenshot displays the 'X-CD Virtual Conference' interface. On the left is a dark blue sidebar with a user profile for 'Christina Voyles' and a menu with categories: 'Conference' (Lobby, Sessions, Participants, Social Lounge, Chat, Social Feed, Exhibitor Directory), 'Information' (View ePosters, Keynote Speakers, 5k Fun Run, Evaluation), and 'Support'. The main area features six lounge cards, each with a purple header and a 'Join Room' button. An orange arrow points to the 'Yoga Room' card. The cards are: 'Coffee Break' (sponsored by Nevada State College, 0/16 participants), 'Medical Technologies' (sponsored by Medical Technologies, 0/16 participants), 'Artificial Intelligence' (sponsored by Google, 0/16 participants), 'Yoga Room' (0/16 participants), 'Fellows & Residents' (0/16 participants), and 'Young Professionals' (0/16 participants).

Economic Outlook Seminar – online platform social lounge:

Once inside the Social Lounge, participants interact via the embedded Zoom meeting platform, where they can privately chat with others in the room. They can view other lounges in the left navigation and jump from one lounge to another, interacting with multiple attendees, or plan to “meet” in a specific lounge at a set time. Attendees can also easily navigate back to the main Lobby or other pages via the main navigation.

Economic Outlook Seminar – online platform text chats:

Attendees can network directly with presenters, sponsors and other attendees via the text chat area. These chat's are not private but open and available for all attendees to view, join the conversation and return to read after the seminar is over, offering the ability to engage with more people before, during and afterward, than during traditional in-person seminars.
